

WE'VE RAISED
THE AMOUNT YOU CAN EARN FOR COLLEGE

The Army Reserve doesn't want rising costs to keep you from a higher education.

You can now earn over $60,000 for college or vocational/technical training as a soldier in the Army Reserve. Pay during a standard enlistment adds up to over $20,000 and you can now qualify for over $20,000 in educational benefits with the Montgomery GI Bill and the "Kicker"

The Student Loan Repayment Program can help you pay off federally insured loans up to $20,000 more, depending on the Military Occupational Specialty you chose.

Earn extra money for you education, plus gain confidence, judgment and self-discipline to help you succeed – all for just part-time service.
